About Today's Game - News & Notes

Garfield Bulldogs vs. Hazen Highlanders

Changes, well we've all had our share!

Baseball is here and now, America's game, first thought of? Some say Doubleday, and others say it was created from Rounders (A girl's game in the UK) and/or maybe Cricket has some influence as well?

It's SPRING, that's what matters, chance for all to get outside, ENJOY some fresh Northwest air, plus that dampness! (Oh My) and actually be able to play a game that is known as the metaphor of our civil life.

Hazen comes into today's game hoping to find a top spot in their league this coming season. Coach Seiber always has a team that will challenge one and all, so expect them to compete from the first pitch to the last out.

Never one to back down from a challenge, Highlanders are known to climb Munro's (mountains) they dear say in Scotland, so grab your kilt and bat, let's play baseball!

Our Bulldogs, finally with a full season ahead (playoffs and all), it's only been 2 years, with the pandemic now becoming an endemic (expect variants in the coming months), we have an opportunity to get to know one another once again, away from the Metaverse (well almost? We are now live streaming the games with our host Cliff Meyer).

Head coach Chris Moedritzer has a talented and senior laden team that has been thru the spin cycle! Having been spun enough, they are now ready to set their sights on the Metro league and hope the outcome is to their liking. We shall find out soon enough, as we all know the high school season is a sprint, so the team that is able to quickly adjust and find their rhythm/timing/comradery will find themselves near or at the top of the standings.

Bulldogs feature 2 outstanding lefties in Aaron Herst (C) and Ben Bennett, along with several other young arms as well. Offensively we have teammates that can drive a ball, expect to see these guys in the middle of the lineup Oliver Hogan, Mitchell Thomas-Fair, Louis Simon (C) and Juan Cano. Defensively, we'll find the good hands folks, (infield) Henry Smidt, Patrick Theiss, Zac Meyer, Griffin Hintz - (Outfield) Malachi Washington, Saul Johnson, CJ Friedlander, Quinn Chow, catching Simon, Cano, Chow and CJ.

Let's get back to Playing, in this work a day world, we see a rote meaning to our actions and others. We have a tendency to specialize, analyze, particularize, and automatize all life's quality into a narrowness of mechanics. Baseball is no different, once we objectivize ourselves, we get caught up in a non-spontaneous, clockwork way. Chances disappear, risks become fewer, and we begin to stagnate, no opportunities for error, so no learning or chance for improvement. Are we able to challenge ourselves, each of us (and opponents), we need it, we want it!

~ Get to know the Players ~

#24 Noah Lippman

2B, SS, OF

Jr

- 1) Who do you feel was instrumental in introducing you to baseball? How did it happen? My dad introduced me to baseball when I was 8. He bought me a red and black glove from Big 5 and we played catch across the street.
- 2) Baseball has changed slowly over the years, what rules would you like to see changed or possibly reversed back to the rule that was changed? I've been fine with the new rule changes over the years. One rule change I would dislike is banning the shift, I think it takes strategy away from the game.
- 3) Hobbies and interests outside of baseball? Playing other sports with friends, lifting.
- 4) Favorite book you have read, why you enjoyed it and how it changed you? The Body by Stephen King, I really liked this book because it was a great story about growing up and friendship.
- 5) Who is your favorite baseball player(s) from the past and why? Ken Griffey Jr is probably my favorite former player to watch. He had the smoothest swing ever and was a great outfielder.

#15 Saul Johnson

OF, 3B, RHP

So

- 1) Who do you feel was instrumental in introducing you to baseball? How did it happen? I think my parents were key in introducing me to baseball from a young age. I would play catch with my dad and go to mariners games.
- 5) Who is your favorite baseball player(s) from the past and why? My favorite player from the past is felix Hernandez. He was always my favorite mariners player when I was younger and was an inspiration to me.
