About Today's Game - News & Notes

Garfield vs. Franklin

Neighborhood Ballgame!

Quakers come in to today's game with a 1-4 divisional win/loss record. Hoping to pick up more wins in the coming weeks, to boost their opportunities for a high seed in the Metro league playoffs (see attached 2022 Metro 3A playoff bracket). When neighborhoods get together expect to see the competitiveness effect, take hold, as the Quakers are looking to upend the Bulldogs at The historical Garfield Park today.

Almost at the halfway point, looking like the public schools may have the better baseball teams this season, with West Seattle (undefeated) and Lincoln at the top, for the moment, hoping to be the 1 and 2 seeds for their public portion. Garfield looking to stay in the top 5 for this division so they can stay out of the single elimination portion. It's way too early to have a clear winner, but the Wildcats seem to be headed for that distinction (they will be here on Wednesday April 20th).

Coach Moedritzer's team is being led in pitching by Aaron Herst (Sr-C), who in his last outing pitched a 1-hit shutout versus Chief Sealth (winning 2-0) who had their ace going as well. Herst has pitched 17 innings so far and sports a .824/ERA and .706/WHIP with 32 K's and only 2 earned runs, those are ace numbers. Let's not forget Louis Simon @ catcher (Sr-C) as he has been instrumental in Herst's great start. On offense, we see the middle of the lineup doing the damage, Oliver Hogan (Jr), Mitchell Thomas-Fair (Sr), Juan Cano (Jr) and Simon and Herst. Defensively we are seeing improvement, as our fielding% has gone up to .929, there is plenty of room for the Bulldogs to learn from their mistakes.

Expect to see an all-out effort for Garfield today, Coach Moedritzer will leave no stone unturned in attempting to secure a win and get back on their winning ways. Don't forget we play Ballard back to back, away Friday 4pm and (T-Mobile park) Saturday 11am.

Enjoy cheering for your team!

#9 Zac Meyer RHP, 3B Sr

- 1) Who do you feel was instrumental in introducing you to baseball? How did it happen?* My dad was instrumental in introducing me to baseball. He took me to my first mariners game before I could even walk.
- 2) Baseball has changed slowly over the years, what rules would you like to see changed or possibly reversed back to the rule that was changed?* I don't think you should be ejected for fighting, instead you get put in a penalty box for two minutes.
- 3) Hobbies and interests outside of baseball?* Outside of baseball I enjoy hanging out with friends, playing chess, and gambling.
- 4) Favorite book you have read, why you enjoyed it and how it changed you?* My favorite book is Rainbow Six by Tom Clancy.
- 5) Who is your favorite baseball player(s) from the past and why?* My favorite player is Ichiro because of the way he approached the game.

#17 Malachi Washington RHP, OF Sr

- 1) Who do you feel was instrumental in introducing you to baseball? How did it happen?* I would say that my dad was instrumental in getting me into baseball by coaching my little league teams. I would also recognize my whole family for driving me to games and cheering me on in the stands.
- 2) Baseball has changed slowly over the years, what rules would you like to see changed or possibly reversed back to the rule that was changed?* I controversially like the runner on second base extra inning rule because I feel that it increases the excitement of extra innings.
- 3) Hobbies and interests outside of baseball?* My hobbies include playing fantasy sports, spending time outdoors, and spending time with family.
- 4) Favorite book you have read, why you enjoyed it and how it changed you?* My favorite book series was the Percy Jackson series. I enjoyed it because it had pretty good plotlines throughout the series.
- 5) Who is your favorite baseball player(s) from the past and why?* My favorite baseball player is Carlos Correa. His swagger is unmatched especially in the face of a certain scandal.
