About Today's Game - News & Notes

Garfield Bulldogs vs. Eastside Catholic Crusaders

Who will have the biggest bite!

Crusaders come to historical Garfield Park hoping to get back to their winning tradition. Having lost back to back games to their cross pond rival Bishop Blanchet Braves 13-2 and 3-2 (8 inn). While the Bulldogs got off to a fast early lead (6-0 in the 1st inning) this past Friday, away against our crosstown rival the Ballard Beavers, holding on for a 12-8 win, then playing the Beav's the next morning @ T-Mobile Park and literally walking away (Aaron Herst Sr-C getting HBP with bases loaded) to win with time expiring 8-7.

EC is looking to find a way to stay in touch with their respective divisional opponents, Blanchet leading the way currently with O'Dea and Seattle Prep just ahead of them in the standings. Half the regular season left. Hoping to gain the maturity (learn from their mistakes) from their unusual start in Metro baseball so far for 2022. Pitching, their younger arms have the most innings so far, but the older classman Quinn Lowery (Sr) is holding his own with Jack Lee (Jr) catching. Offensively, Charlie Powell (Jr) and Lee lead their team at the plate.

The past few days saw Garfield take a loss @ Blanchet but bounced back against a young well coached Franklin Quakers (missing their top 2 players) at home winning 17-5, then the double-day wins against Ballard. Now, the Bulldogs offense is starting to heat up, some minor lineup changes by Head coach Moedritzer, we are starting to see the guys ahead of the power start to get on base more often, Henry Smidt (Jr) aka "The Trackman", Malachi Washington (Sr) and Patrick Theiss (Sr). THE power hitters Louis Simon (Sr -C), Oliver Hogan (Jr), Mitchell Thomas-Fair (Sr) and Herst seem to have gotten their point across, we need more traffic.

Here's a word that hardly ever gets mentioned when talking about baseball "tension", why? Well it's not a data point (number) for those who keep trying to convince us that quantity/enumeration is what "counts". Who doesn't feel tension, well the machine doesn't, nor a non-competitive game, nor one that is disinterested etc..., but for those persons who do (players, parents, friends, coaches, announcer etc...), it has more meaning than almost anything that occurs at a game, it comes spontaneously, and announces itself through emotions/senses, which beckons our life and love of baseball!

Enjoy cheering for your team!

#3 Desmond Jaynes Ostrom RHP, SS Sr

- 1) Who do you feel was instrumental in introducing you to baseball? How did it happen? My older brother Cole introduced me to baseball. Once he started coach pitch he was always looking for a throwing partner, so I learned to throw and catch for him.
- 2) Baseball has changed slowly over the years, what rules would you like to see changed or possibly reversed back to the rule that was changed? Bring back the spitball! Hitters these days have enough protective gear to handle an occasional hit by pitch. I think it would make baseball a lot more fun.
- 3) Hobbies and interests outside of baseball? I like to play basketball, ski, and build things.
- 4) Favorite book you have read, why you enjoyed it and how it changed you? The Hidden Life of Trees really changed my perspective on trees, and plants in general.
- 5) Who is your favorite baseball player(s) from the past and why? I like Manny Ramirez, because he named two of his sons Manny Jr., and once went pee in the outfield in the middle of a game.

#4 Griffin Hintze 1B, 3B, RHP Sr

- 1) Who do you feel was instrumental in introducing you to baseball? How did it happen? My mom got me into baseball. She made me play coach pitch even though I was really against it at the time, but it turns out I was wrong.
- 2) Baseball has changed slowly over the years, what rules would you like to see changed or possibly reversed back to the rule that was changed? One rule I hope gets implemented is the pitch clock. In high school pitchers work pretty fast which is great but in the MLB it can get slow at times.
- 3) Hobbies and interests outside of baseball? I like other sports (basketball, football, soccer) to play and watch. I also play video games and do photography.
- 5) Who is your favorite baseball player(s) from the past and why? My favorite past player is Ichiro. Besides him being a Mariners icon, my first baseball memory was being at his record breaking game for hits in a season.
